

NEXT LEVEL FOOTBALL

BLAKE BEDDINGFIELD

Blake Beddingfield is a highly respected industry veteran who worked 19 years in the College Scouting department of the Tennessee Titans, where he most recently served as their Director of College Scouting.

During his tenure, Mr. Beddingfield was responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Titans college scouting department including coordination of scout travel, administration of draft meetings, preparation of meeting agendas, and evaluation of all draft-eligible prospects. Mr. Beddingfield's college scouting staff produced the following NFL stalwarts: Kevin Byard, Derrick Henry, Cortland Finnegan, Chris Johnson, Albert Haynesworth, Jevon Kearse, and Jack Conklin.

In 2004, Mr. Beddingfield was invited to attend the NFL's prestigious Stanford Program for Managers, which was offered to a select group of league executives. In 2007, he was selected to attend the first annual NFL Football Operations Career Development Symposium.

Mr. Beddingfield is a graduate of the University of Alabama and currently resides in Nashville, TN.

